

Process of WBJEE Counseling 2023

Candidates can follow the given steps to participate in WBJEE 2023 counseling process.

Step 1: Register for WBJEE counselling 2023

In the first step, the candidates will have to complete the WBJEE counseling registration process. Candidates will have to provide their WBJEE 2023 roll number and password to log in and register for the counselling process. The required details have to be filled out in the online counseling form.

Step 2: Choice Filling and Locking

Registered candidates will have to fill in their choices for the preferred college and course. Candidates who fail to do or miss this step will not be considered for admission and seat allotment. After the option entry process concludes, candidates will have to lock their choices for the final WBJEE seat allotment. Candidates who fail to lock choices will be allocated seats based on their last saved choices.

Step 3: Payment of Fee

Next, the candidates will have to pay the counseling registration fee of INR 500. The fee will be non-refundable and has to be paid online i.e., through net banking/credit card/debit card.

Step 3: Check the WBJEE seat allotment result

Candidates will be allocated seats based on their rank, preference list and availability of seats. WBJEE 2023 seat allotment result will be declared online and the process will be spread across three rounds. Candidates who are allocated seats in the first round of seat allotment will have to report at the reporting centers. Verified candidates will have to pay the provisional admission fee (mentioned below) at the reporting centre.

Category	Provisional admission fee (in INR)
TFW category in any institute	3,000
Any category seat in state-aided University/University departments, Government Engineering & Technology Institutes/ Pharmacy Colleges	5,000
Any category seat in Self-financing Universities/University departments and Engineering & Technology/Pharmacy/Architecture institutes	5,000

Step 6: Report at the Allotted Institutes

Candidates who are allocated seats will have to get their documents verified at their allotted institutes. At this stage, candidates who are allocated seats in the first round can either pay the acceptance fee or opt for up-gradation. A provisional allotment letter containing allotment details, fee details, and willingness for up-gradation will be issued to candidates at the reporting centers.
